

AMARO DUBOIS

Violist | Teaching Artist | Collaborator

Praised for having such a powerful and yet so welcoming warm sound, Brazilian violist Amaro Dubois has approached his unique playing in many aspects of the classical music industry by placing an emphasis on expanding the repertoire for the viola through collaborative projects in Brazil and North America. Amaro earned his Bachelor's Degree in Viola Performance with a specialty in chamber music from the Brazilian Conservatory of Music in Rio de Janeiro, and a Master's Degree in Viola Performance, where he was granted an assistantship.

More recently, Amaro Dubois was awarded the Iris Orchestra Fellowship under the guidance and mentorship of music director and conductor Michael Stern from 2019-2021 and will begin his DMA at the University of Nevada in Fall 2021 as a teaching assistant. Additionally, Amaro recently started a Duo with the marvelous collaborative pianist Tingting Yao. The Yao-Dubois Duo's mission is to share compositions by underrepresented composers, including African American, Latin American, and women composers.
